Variety - The Children's Charity

Variety serves children between birth and 18 with temporary and/or permanent disabilities resulting from injury, illness, or congenital conditions. Variety is a non-profit organization that takes pride in providing programs and services to special needs children. The following are a few of the programs or services provided: Variety Club Camp and Development Center, Direct Care for Kids, After-School Programs, Family Resource Center for Autism, and Scholarships.

Our programs and services are designed to best address the children's physical, social, medical, educational, and recreational needs without regards to economic status, race, creed, gender, or type of disability.

Center for Creative Work

The Center for Creative Works is a unique, creativity driven vocational arts program for people with intellectual disabilities. CCW builds opportunities for our artists to earn money through their exceptional work. We program with the philosophy that in art, there is no disability. CCW supports the vision of our artists and welcomes the larger public to experience the talents, skills and contributions which our participants offer to their communities through their art and design work. CCW participant artists engage their communities with zest, vitality and artistic spirit!
